UGS Field Trial and Working Test Regulations

- 1 All Trials organised by the SOCIETY and the Branches will be held in accordance with The Kennel Club Rules and Field Trial Regulations and the UGS Field Trial Regulations.
- 2 Should circumstances so dictate, the SOCIETY, in consultation with the judges, may alter the arrangements for a Field Trial as necessary. Such changes and the circumstances surrounding them will be reported to the Kennel Club at the earliest opportunity.
- 3 The Society reserves the right to refuse entries.
- 4 The SOCIETY will be responsible for organising and appointing judges for all Spaniel Field Trials.
- 5 The Society accepts no responsibility for injury, loss or damage to persons or property however occasioned.
- 6 Branches will hold an All-Aged Stake and Novice Field Trials as decided by their committees.
 - 6.i The running of an All-Aged Trial is an absolute obligation on each Branch and is to take preference ahead of all other Trials organised by the Branch.
- 7 Entry Fees for the Trials shall be decided by The SOCIETY Committee.
- 8 The Competitions are open to all (except for the Field Trial Finals), however, fully paid-up Branch Members will have preference in the draw. New Members who join the UGS following the Parent Body AGM will not receive preference in Field Trial draws the following season.
- 9 All persons attending a Trial must be appropriately dressed out of respect to the Host and Guns and must consider themselves under the control of Chief Steward and Officials. All mobile phones must be switched off.
- 10 Trophies are to be held until the next season and then returned cleaned and engraved before the next Trial. Should a trophy be won by an overseas member, the member will not be permitted to remove the trophy from the United Kingdom. It will be retained by the Parent Body or Branch as appropriate.

11 Any bitch in season or any dog suffering from hysteria must be removed from the Trial.

12 CONDITIONS OF ENTRY AND DRAW PROCEDURES FOR FIELD TRIALS

12.1 Entries are to be decided by ballot, which will form the order of running.

12.ii Substitution of entries will be allowed at the discretion of the Field Trial Secretary.

12.iii Applicants who do not provide an e-mail address or enclose a self sealing stamped, addressed envelope will not receive a copy of the Draw.

12.iv After an applicant has been successful in the draw for a place in a Stake, or as a reserve has accepted the offer of a run, if the run is not taken up the applicant may become liable for the full entry fee if his or her place is not taken up by another competitor except:

(a) Where the applicant has qualified out of Novice Stake (where applicable) or

(b) Where the dog drawn to run has qualified for the Championship after entries have closed or

(c) On production of a Veterinary Certificate confirming that the dog for the stake is unfit to compete or

(d) On production of a medical certificate that the applicant or the applicants nominated handler is unable to compete.

12.v Entries will not be taken over the telephone.

12.vi Entries will be by nomination. Reserves will be notified by telephone and email in draw order. If contact cannot be made the offer will be passed to the next on the list.

12.vii No modification can be made to a schedule except by permission of the Kennel Club followed by advertisement in appropriate journals if time permits before closing date for entries.

12.viii Any competitor not present at the meet when the Chief Steward announces the Trial has commenced will forfeit their place to the reserve.
